IS COME TO STAY

Russian Move in Manchuria is Not New.

Japan Loses An Opportunity Which Will Be Impossible to Overcome.

Indianapolis, April 27.—Senator Albert J. Beveridge, who two years ago visited Manchuria, foreshadowed in a series of articles that he wrote on his return to this country almost exactly such a situation as now prevails. In an interview with the News today Senator Beveridge said:

"Russia's latest move should surprise nobody. For three years and more nothing has been clearer to the careful student than that Russia intended to occupy Manchuria permanently.

"Of course Russia is not going to give up this dominion which her money and soldiers' blood has transformed from a region of savagery to a region of law and order. From personal observations and from conversation with those who know I estimated in 1901 that Russia has in Manchuria and in the southeast corner of Siberia (the Litteral) about Vladivostok, and generally within three weeks' striking distance of Japan, not less than 150,000 Russian troops. I should imagine that if this estimate is correct it has since that time been swelled to perhaps 175,000 men."

TERRIBLY WOUNDED

NARROW ESCAPE OF A ST. JOHN'S FARMER FROM DEATH.

Grant Whitehurst, a farmer living near St. John's fell in front of his horse while preparing to barrow his farm and was horribly mangled and lacerated. The sharp teeth of the narrow cut his flesh and body and his recovery is doubtful. The accident happened near Leader, Ky., and had it not been for the speedy action of a farm hand Whitehurst would have been dragged to death under the harrow.

IN THE CHURCHES

Big Congregations Attend Services in Different Churches.

Rev. Mr. Coates Called to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

BISHOP DUDLEY COMES SUNDAY

Yesterday was a beautiful Sunday and exceptionally large congregations were in attendance at all the churches. The night crowd, contrary to the usual custom, comparing favorably with the morning congregations.

Dr. Harvey Hatcher, a distinguished Baptist minister of Atlanta, Ga., filled the pulpit of the First Baptist church Sunday both morning and evening. He is an able and eloquent preacher and gave two fine sermons. He was heard by excellent congregations at both services and very much pleased all.

Mr. Schon, of Louisville, representing the Kentucky Children's Home, was in the city yesterday and visited the various churches in the interest of his great work. He made a strong and earnest plea and enlisted the interest and attention of his audiences. He briefly outlined the good work being done, and the necessity for enlarged accommodations, especially in a hospital addition. Pledge cards were given out and a collection taken for the cause at the Broadway Methodist church last night.

An excellent service was held by the Broadway Methodist Epworth League in the league parlor last evening from 6:45 to 7:45 o'clock. "Mission Work in Large Cities" was the general theme. Strong and interesting talks were made along practical lines by several speakers. Mr. W. A. Barkley spoke on the "Importance of Large Cities." Judge Wm. Marble stressed the necessity of civic beauty and purity as an uplifting force. Mr. B. L. Matthis talked on "Missions Among Non-Church Goers."

A series of revival services was begun yesterday at the Trimble street Methodist church. The pastor will be assisted by Rev. A. C. Holder, a young preacher of the Paducah district, who is said to be a revivalist of ability. Mr. Holder was at one time a missionary to Cuba. There will be services every day this week at 10 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.

Bishop T. U. Dudley, of Louisville, will preach at Grace Episcopal church next Sunday, and hold the regular confirmation service. This is Bishop Dudley's regular episcopal visit to Paducah, and he is always greeted with large congregations as he is very popular here and an eloquent preacher.

A call has been extended to the Rev. Mr. Coates, of Gainesville, Texas, by the Cumberland Presbyterian church of the city. He is expected next Sunday to occupy the pulpit and confer with the congregation. He has quite a reputation as an eloquent, scholarly minister.

Rev. R. W. Morehead, D. D., of Princeton, who has been assisting Rev. J. L. Perryman of the East Baptist church in a revival service during the past week, preached strong sermons yesterday. The revival is meeting with splendid success.

The revival which has been in progress all the past week at the Tenth street Christian church, will be continued throughout this week. The pastor, Rev. H. K. Berry has been conducting the service, and preaching excellent sermons. There has been much interest manifested.

The board of church extension of the M. E. church, South, which was in session in Louisville at the general secretary's office last week, has finished its work and adjourned. Among the allowances made for various churches annually helped by the board was $130 for Third street Methodist church of this city.

Rev. W. H. Robinson of the Second Baptist church continues quite ill. His pulpit was filled last evening by Rev. J. L. Perryman, pastor of the East Baptist church.

COLONEL HENDRICK QUILTS

Announcement of His Withdrawal Came as a Bombshell in the Local Camp.

The News Came From Louisville, and His Principal Friends and Most Zealous Workers Cannot Account For It.

WHAT SOME OF THEM HAVE TO SAY ABOUT IT

Louisville, Ky., April 27.—John K. Hendrick, in a card printed today, announces his withdrawal from the race for the Democratic nomination for governor, leaving Governor Beckham unopposed, Robert J. Breckinridge having withdrawn a few days since. The withdrawal will make some what was expected to have been an exciting primary election May 9. Hendrick had all along opposed a primary election, desiring a delegate convention. A good many shrewd politicians were aligned on the side of Hendrick, and had they obtained a convention they might have secured his nomination. But in a primary it was doubtful if Beckham could be defeated, despite the doubt as to his eligibility to reelection.

In his card of withdrawal Mr. Hendrick says he will support the ticket to the last ditch. He bases his withdrawal upon the statement that it is impossible to make a thorough canvass and see all the people. The withdrawal of Hendrick will make no change in the Republican plans.

NEWS RECEIVED IN PADUCAH.

Colonel Hendrick's withdrawal came to his Paducah supporters as the greatest surprise, and they have not yet recovered from the shock. A reporter for The Sun saw Mr. James Wilhelm, of the Register, one of Mr. Hendrick's strongest supporters and asked him what he thought of it. "Well, replied Mr. Wilhelm, 'I am like the boy caught in the act, I haven't anything to say.' Mr. Wilhelm says that last night some one called him over the telephone and told him that Hendrick had withdrawn, but that the man would not say who he was so he placed no confidence in it. When he came down this morning, however, the first thing he heard was the rumor. Hendrick's friends who went to him for substantiation of the story, were told that he did not believe it, at all but when told of a message from Mr. Urey Woodson to his papers, sent from Louisville, where Mr. Hendrick is, he had to admit its truth.

Some of Mr. Hendrick's friends are inclined to feel hurt over his withdrawal. They have, they say, literally pulled off their coats and worked like Trojans for him for weeks only to have it all come to this and without a hint from him of anything of the sort.

Mr. Joe Potter, a warm supporter of Hendrick's, said: "I don't know what the man means. He was getting stronger every day."

Mr. James Lang, another warm supporter, was only this morning sending out a lot of literature to the counties in West Kentucky and when he heard the news quickly had it withdrawn. Last week the local papers printed over 20,000 copies of their weeklies containing Hendrick's speech and sent them over the district.

Another of Mr. Hendrick's friends was presented with a draft from the colonel this morning, a promised contribution to his fund, but when he heard the news of the withdrawal he did not feel inclined to honor it.

The news was the biggest item for some time. Hendrick and Beckham supporters could be seen everywhere discussing the all important news.

One of Hendrick's strongest supporters said today: "It's just like this: Here I found a man who was set upon by a gang of fellows for whom I have the utmost contempt and go in to help him fight it out. But, lo! without a word of warning, he turns around, throws me down, and stands on me, and goes to the other gang."

Hendrick's chief support was the two local papers, and the news came to them as a great shock. For weeks past they have been fighting his cause valorously making one believe, from a perusal of their columns, that Hendrick would have a walk over. However, outside of Paducah, no one thought Hendrick had any show.

The Republican leaders, when asked for an expression on the withdrawal, only smiled and said it looked "queer." All agree that the Republicans have a fine chance to put in their ticket this year, and smile when they think of the excellent campaign material Hendrick and his supporters, especially the local papers, have made for the Republicans.

SUNDAY BASEBALL

PADUCAH MINISTERS THIS MORNING REGISTER THEIR PROTEST.

The Ministers' association this morning unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, we have heard that it is the purpose of the baseball league to conduct a Sunday game, we, the Pastors' association go on record as opposed to any such movement and will do all in our power to prevent such desecration of the Sabbath, and pledge ourselves to assist the officers and all good law-abiding citizens to see that the law is enforced.

THE FIRST GAME

Paducah Team and Amateurs Play First Game of Season.

A Big Crowd Went Out to the Park to Get a Line on the Men.

GAME REPLETE WITH ERRORS

The first public appearance of the local professional K. I. T. league baseball team was made yesterday afternoon at Wallace park when it defeated the Independents, a local amateur team organized for the purpose of playing the professionals a practice game. The game was one-sided from the start but the bad playing was not confined to the amateur team alone.

There was a large crowd present, probably numbering 2,500, and much interest was manifested in the professional team. Several players did not make the best showing but this is excusable taking the new ground into consideration and the few times they had played together. The professionals used all three pitchers, each pitching three innings. Hedges pitched the first three, Morgan the second and Mackie the third. Hedges made the best showing of the three. The Independent team used two pitchers, Dicke pitching six innings and Plumlee three. The lineup of the team was as follows:

Independents—Wilkins and Irvin, catchers; Dicke and Plumlee, pitchers; Prues, first base; Wilkins, second base; Davis, third base; Andrew, short stop; Plumlee, right field; Overstreet, centerfield; Luftenberg, left field.

League team—Perry catcher; Morgan, Hedges and Mackie, pitchers; Lloyd, first base; Sexton, second base; Clifford, third base; Le Compte, short stop; Kenney, right field; Sweeney, center field; Murray, left field.

Dicke had poor support or would have made a better showing. The amateurs were at a disadvantage in the fact that they had not worked together much. Plumlee's pitching for the amateurs was excellent, the professionals getting only two clean hits off him during the three innings he pitched. The street car company did a good business yesterday and handled the crowds admirably on the return to the city. There were about one hundred and fifty ladies out to the game and seemed well pleased with the sport.

There were several visitors from neighboring cities present at yesterday's game, among them being a newspaper man from Cairo who had come up to see the sport and investigate the strength of the team. He stated that he thought Paducah had a good team but inferred that Cairo would be far superior. "Ball players are coming in on every train," he said, "either in the box car or on the bumpers and we have over thirty-six to pick from." News from the other cities show a slowness in organizing teams but Paducah has organized and ready for playing.

Several sportsmen and newspaper men have been working on a schedule but have not yet arranged a successful one.

The game between the Y. M. O. A. team and the K. I. T. professional team, which had been set for Saturday, has been postponed until some future date to be decided later. Mr. Weille and Manager Jackson, of the baseball association, did not want the boys to work too hard on the start and will probably play no more until Sunday unless a game is secured for the 30th.

The Centrals, the I. O. baseball team defeated the Sterlings at the railroad boys' grounds on the rear of the shops yesterday afternoon by a score of 19 to 5. There were not many grandstand plays on either side but Jerome Smith, of the victorious team, made several three baggers and home runs. The batteries for the Centrals were Smith, catcher; Barney and Sutherland pitchers. For the Sterlings Bralio and Bralio, catcher and pitcher and Hays, catcher and Russell pitcher. The game lasted several hours and was practically a slugfests match.

THE GUN CLUB SHOOT

The Big Tournament Starts Tuesday Morning.

Some of the Most Famous Shots of the United States in Attendance at the Meet.

BIG PURSES ARE OFFERED

The Paducah Gun club tournament, the largest ever given by the Gun club, and perhaps one of the largest ever given anywhere, will begin tomorrow and end Thursday. A large number of visitors are expected, and the handicap shoot will be worth from $1,000 to $1,200 to the winner. A large number of live birds will be used and about 30,000 targets.

Many notable shots will attend the tournament. Among those who have signified their intention of coming are: E. D. Fulford, Fulton, N. Y.; J. M. Hughes, Palmyra, Wis.; James E. Howard, Jeffersonville, Ind.; J. T. Page, Elkton, Ky.; Kolla Heikes, Cincinnati; ten men from Nashville, five from Memphis, five from Crawfordsville, Ind.; E. B. Cole, Shreveport, La.; Emile Pragoff and a large number from Louisville; A. B. Heyle, Arthur Gamble, R. H. West, G. W. Schuler and Charles H. Dreibus of the Cincinnati Gun club; Wm. Cosby of Stratton, Ill., and dozens of others.

Refreshments will be served the visitors and ladies at the Gun club pavilion in Wallace park, and large crowds are expected out to witness the shooting.

Among other out-of-town marksmen who are expected are: E. Brady, Newbern, Tenn.; C. W. Fallis, Mechanicsburg, O.; J. A. B. Elliott, Kansas City, Mo.; Fred Gilbert, Spirit Lake, Ia.; John Mackey, Cincinnati; C. O. LeCompte, Eminence, Ky.; Harold Money, New York; Josh Griffith, Owensboro; C. G. Spencer, St. Louis; Geo. Hillmann, Nashville; W. W. Watson, St. Louis; E. D. Fulford, Union, N. Y.; W. R. Crathy, Othello, Ill.; P. O. Hughes, Dayton, O.; T. A. Marshall, Keethburg, Ill.; Ralph Trimble, Cincinnati; Hood Walters, Baltimore; P. O. Goodfellow.

Yesterday several large coops of pigeons were received for the tournament and everything has been announced in readiness. The total prizes will amount to between $4,000 and $5,000. The public at large is invited out to see the sport and no doubt the grounds will be full of visitors.

The following marksmen are already here, having registered at the Palmer house this morning: Hood Walters, Baltimore, Md.; J. M. Hughes, Bridgeport, Conn.; Fred Gilbert, Spirit Lake, Ia.; E. Brady, Newbern, Tenn.; E. D. Telford, Utica, N. Y.

Mr. Reed of the Palmer has the following requests for rooms to be held until the arrival of the marksmen: One for W. A. Long and Louis Williams of New Haven, Conn., and A. W. DuBray of Cincinnati.

The Brook Hills defeated the Red Raven Splits in an eleven inning game at the Starr farm grounds yesterday afternoon. The score stood 9 to 8 in favor of the Brook Hills. Theobald and Theobald, battery for the latter, and Wooldridge and Eaker battery for the former.

Mr. Barney Dreyfus, of the Pittsburgh team, has telegraphed here relative to the game with the local professional team, scheduled for April 30 in which Mr. Dreyfus regrets that he cannot fill the date on account of the schedule arrangement with St. Louis. Manager Jackson stated this morning that no game would be played on that date. A game will probably be arranged for July 3.

A FROST ON CLARK'S RIVER.

Mr. L. Y. Craig of the Clark's River section is in the city today and reports a heavy frost in the Clark's River neighborhood. The frost was heavy enough to lay everything white and some of the early fruit is reported damaged to some extent.

Mr. C. F. Row and wife returned from Centralia today after a two days visit to relatives.

BRICK FAMINE OVER IS A BIG CONCERN

Katterjohn Company Will be Able to Fill Orders Soon.

Work on New Buildings and Repairs to Resume.

This morning the Katterjohn Brick yard Co. filled the first order for brick since the famine has been on in Paducah. This order was for 25,000 brick to build a small house in the Werten addition. Mr. Katterjohn stated this morning that he would have plenty of brick as soon as he got well started, but it would be a week probably before he could fill another order.

"The high water has stopped the other brick men," Mr. Katterjohn stated, "but we are situated so that we will not have to stop on this account. We will be in a position to furnish plenty of brick within a week or two and the building trades will then begin again. You can just say the famine is over."

The work on the fraternity building and many other buildings in Paducah has been stopped on this account and as soon as the brick can be secured will begin again.

VETERANS REUNION.

TO HAVE NEARLY AS MANY AT NEW ORLEANS AS USUALLY ATTEND REUNIONS.

New Orleans, April 27—General George W. Gordon, of the Tennessee division of United Confederate Veterans, and General Robert Lowry, of the Mississippi division, are here making arrangements for their headquarters. General Lowry says that Mississippi alone will have nearly as many people here as usually attended a reunion, and General Gordon says the number from Tennessee will be large. Arrangements for horses are being rapidly made, and the music is provided for, twenty-one bands being engaged. The union bands of New Orleans are not included, but there has not been the least concern about getting the music. The colored bands not employed were union bands, which would not have come in if they had been asked.

Judge J. H. Reagan, of Texas, the last survivor of Jefferson Davis' cabinet, will be an especially honored guest of the executive committee.

A BIG DIVIDEND.

NEW YORK BANK OF COMMERCE WILL CUT A MELON BEFORE CONSOLIDATION.

New York, April 27—In the financial district it was reported that the National bank of commerce will soon pay an extra dividend of 53 per cent. This is supposed to represent the difference in the surplus of the bank of Commerce and that of the Western National, which it is generally understood will soon absorb the bank of commerce. The Bank of Commerce shares sold as high as $375 today, representing an increase of about $75 in the past fortnight.

The capital stock of the Bank of Commerce is $10,000,000, so that $5,300,000 will be distributed among the stockholders when the extra dividend is paid.

READY TO QUIT

LIEUT. GOV. LEE OF MISSOURI MAY RESIGN TODAY.

St. Louis, April 27—Lieut. Gov. John A. Lee will resign today unless he goes counter to the decision reached Saturday night at a conference between himself and several of his friends and advisers.

The decision comes as a result of the scandalous disclosures of bribery in the legislature, especially in connection with baking powder bills, in which Lee was deeply involved. Senator Thomas L. Rubey, president pro tem of the senate, who defeated the lobby candidate, Senator Farris, by a narrow margin, will succeed to the office.

SADDLER IMPROVING.

Walter Saddle, who was injured Friday last week at Hotel Lagomarsino by being scalped by the elevator, is better today, his many friends will be pleased to learn. The injury is painful. All the hair and skin taken off the head by the elevator will grow back, however, his physicians assure him.

The Joe Fowler left at 10 o'clock for Evansville.

IS A BIG CONCERN

Some Interesting Notes About a Well Known Medicine Co.

The Thacher Medicine Co. Now Placing Its Remedies in Paducah.

It has long been a matter of comment that the so-called patent medicines continue to increase in sale from year to year. Not only the poor and middle classes, but the rich as well are constant users of the standard remedies, and millions of capital is invested in this branch of business.

Some interesting facts concerning the Thacher Medicine Co., one of the largest concerns of its kind, were gathered from Mr. N. B. Haymore, manager of salesmen, and Mr. T. J. Harris, special representatives, who arrived in the city yesterday and are stopping at the Palmer.

This concern is proprietor of Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup, Liver Medicine and Stella Vitae, the former having been on the market fifty-one consecutive years.

Dr. Thacher, the founder of this house, was opposed to promiscuous advertising. He spent a lifetime in perfecting his medicines and thought they should sell purely upon their merit. About six years ago this company passed into new hands. An aggressive policy of advertising was adopted; for instance, 1,802 newspapers are now used, including practically all the leading dailies. In addition, their issue of almanacs and booklets next season will exceed 8,000,000. Some conception of the amount of paper this company uses annually can be gotten when it is stated that if the material they use in their booklet and almanac for one year was printed in one continuous strip one sheet wide it would measure nearly 35,000 miles, almost one and a half times the circumference of the earth, and would weigh over one-half million pounds. If the paper were laid beside a straight level railroad track it would take the swiftest express train two months to run from one end to the other.

The position of the Thacher Medicine Co. as to druggists is different from most concerns. Their goods are placed with the druggists in such a way as they can make a reasonable profit. Their literature has never been filled with vindictive warnings against their integrity. They have long recognized the fact that the druggists have rights as well as the patent medicine concerns; hence their relation has always been exceedingly cordial.

It is a standing proposition of the Thacher Medicine Co. that they will mail their formula for Liver and Blood Syrup, or any other of their preparations, to any reputable physician in the United States. Their formulae are published from time to time—not the process of their manufacture or the proportions, but the simple ingredients. If their preparations were not of the very best they could not afford to expose them.

MANY CELEBRATE.

OVER 500 PEOPLE ATTEND RUDOLPH FAMILY REUNION YESTERDAY.

One of the biggest family reunions ever held in this end of the state was held yesterday at the home of Mr. Ephraim Rudolph, near Sharpe, Ky.

There were three ministers present and religious services were held. The reunion was in honor of the 90th birthday of Mr. Rudolph. Over 500 were present and only one-third of the number were able to enter the church. Baskets of picnic lunches were brought and a regular picnic held. Mr. Rudolph, is a relative of Hon. J. P. Holt and the father of Mr. Felix Rudolph of the city. Dr. J. G. Brooks, the well known physician, was in that neighborhood yesterday and said that he had never seen such a large crowd at a family reunion before.

BIG LOT OF TOMATOES.

MR. FRED BEYER HAS PLANTED 60 ACRES OF THE FRUIT.

Mr. Fred Beyer, a well known farmer of the Cairo road, is preparing to raise one of the biggest crops of tomatoes ever raised in this section of the state. He will this season raise sixty acres of tomatoes on his farm to furnish the canning factory. Last year he planted forty acres and the year before sixteen. He intends to increase his acreage every year.

KING'S BAD RECORD

Diamond Thief Has One in Several Cities Over Country.

The Grand Jury Writes a Caustic Card About the Local Case.

ATTORNEY BRADSHAW'S REPLY

William King, who was arrested here while the monitor Arkansas was moored in the Ohio opposite the city, for the theft of Engineer George Tagg's diamond, is a bigger criminal than the Paducah police first thought they had, as the following record furnished by the Chicago police will show.

James Watson, arrested in Omaha, Neb., September 21, 1898, for larceny. Wm. F. Forbes, arrested in Buffalo, August 23, 1897, general thief.

Wm. King, arrested in Denver, Col., September 7, 1898, fined $200 and given hours to leave. Arrested again in Denver May 13, 1900, for picking pockets and given 90 days in jail.

Received at San Quentin May 28, 1890, grand larceny, dismissed March 28, 1897.

Wm. M. Forbes, sentenced to two years in state prison at Helena, Mont.

King secured an attorney and through him negotiated with Messrs. Starks and Tagg, the losers of diamonds, for the return of same, which was effected. Now it seems that the grand jury has been partially blamed for the escape made by King, who was allowed a $150 bond in the circuit court in lieu of the $500 bond fixed by Judge Sanders.

As soon as released King skipped out and has not been seen since. His case was called in circuit court last week and not answering the bond was declared forfeited. The grand jurors claim they have been mistreated by the papers publicly, and privately on the part of the commonwealth attorney and the following communication has been furnished by the members of that jury in defense:

As to the "diamond robbery" case, we would say that, on Tuesday morning, April 21, Judge D. L. Sanders came before us and stated that the witnesses in the case were recognized to come before the grand jury and that William King had been held under a $500 bond by the city court. The case was at once taken up and the witnesses called. In about an hour's time evidence sufficient was had and an indictment was returned. The commonwealth's attorney heard the evidence in which one witness swore positively that he saw King reach over Tagg's shoulder and take his diamond, and that he had identified William King as the man who had taken the diamond. The indictment was returned before 11 o'clock in the morning, and the commonwealth's attorney was at once informed of the fact by one of the jurymen.

But in the circuit court before this time, William King's attorney (a nephew of the commonwealth's attorney) had placed before the judge a statement to the effect that there was practically no evidence against King, and that he (King's attorney) and the commonwealth's attorney had agreed that, as there was a chance to get back the diamonds that had been stolen from Tagg and Starks, they thought a bond of $150 would be enough for King to give, as he was a poor man and could not give a $500 bond. After the commonwealth's attorney came into the court he was asked if this was his agreement. He said yes, but that a stronger case had been made out than he had been led to believe would be made. He was then asked if he objected to that bail, but he went ahead and allowed the bond to be made, and as the diamonds were now safe, King was released on $150 bond at 12:15, with his attorney as his bondsman. We would say in connection that there have been no cases, even of petty larceny, that have come before us, in which the bond was less than $300. We make these statements because the papers and many citizens have insisted that an investigation should be made by the grand jury. We did not find anything left for us to do, more than was done.

Because a majority of the jury have not seen fit to find some indictments, as the commonwealth and county attorneys thought should be done, they have seen fit to remark that such a set of men did not have sense enough to sit on a grand jury. We will submit our acts to the public and allow them to decide upon that point to suit themselves, but have felt that in justice to ourselves we should make this statement public.

Signed: FRANK DUNN, WILL E. BAKER, ENOCH BROWN, T. B. ORR, J. D. POTTER, CLAUD C. RUSSELL, J. T. JONES, L. H. QUARLES, PETER EICH, F. B. MAY, J. M. DERRINGTON, T. J. McNEILL.

Mr. Bradshaw, the commonwealth attorney, was seen this morning and asked about the matter of the communication from the jurors and he stated that the matter rested with the courts, as to whether the jurymen should be fined for contempt or not.

"The case is a clear case of contempt of court," he stated, "and they could be punished if the judge saw fit. I am exonerated except in one instance. I did not talk with King's attorney but with Captain Henry Bailey who, with me, agreed that we did not have a strong case against King, and that

Chronic Sores Eating Ulcers, A Constant Drain Upon the System.

Nothing is a source of so much trouble as an old sore or ulcer, particularly when located upon the lower extremities where the circulation is weak and sluggish. A gangrenous eating ulcer upon the leg is a frightful sight, and as the poison burrows deeper and deeper into the tissue beneath and the sore continues to spread, one can almost see the flesh melting away and feel the strength going out with the sickening discharges. Great running sores, and deep offensive ulcers often develop from a simple boil, swollen gland, bruise or pimple, and are a threatening danger always, because, while all such sores are not cancerous, a great many are, and this should make you suspicious of all chronic, slow-healing ulcers and sores, particularly if cancer runs in your family. Face sores are common and cause the greatest annoyance because they are so persistent and unsightly and detract so much from one's personal appearance.

Middle aged and old people and those whose blood is contaminated and tainted with the germs and poison of malaria or some previous sickness, are the chief sufferers from chronic sores and ulcers. While the blood remains in an unhealthy, polluted condition healing is impossible, and the sore will continue to grow and spread in spite of washes and salves or any superficial or surface treatment, for the sore is but the outward sign of some constitutional disorder, a bad condition of the blood and system which local remedies cannot cure. A blood purifier and tonic is what you need. Something to cleanse the blood, restore its lost properties, quicken the circulation and invigorate the constitution, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy.

S. S. S. reaches these old chronic sores through the blood. It goes to the very root of the trouble and counteracts and removes from the blood all the impurities and poisons, and gradually builds up the entire system and strengthens the sluggish circulation, and when the blood has been purified and the system purged of all morbid, unhealthy matter the healing process begins, and the ulcer or sore is soon entirely gone.

S. S. S. contains no mineral or poisonous drugs of any description, but is guaranteed a purely vegetable remedy, a blood purifier and tonic combined and a safe and permanent cure for chronic sores and ulcers. If you have a slow-healing sore of any kind, external or internal, write us about it, and our physicians will advise you without charge. Book on "The Blood and Its Diseases" free.

WEATHER FOR MAY

First Week Will be Warm. Cold Wave Following.

Will Be Hard on the Growing Crops of the Country.

Washington, D. C., April 27.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent April 26 to 30, warm wave 25 to 29, cool wave 28 to May 2.

Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about April 30, cross west of Rockies by close of May 1, great central valleys 2 to 4, Eastern states 5.

Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about April 30, great central valleys May 2, Eastern states 4. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about May 3, great central valleys 5, Eastern states 7.

This disturbance will belong to a high temperature period, its storm center will move through mid-latitude states, its cool wave will carry frosts unusually far southward and its movement will be slowly eastward.

This disturbance will be one of the principal rain-makers of the month, but not very much rain will result. The weather will remain unusually cool several days not far from 7 and this will be a bad time for recently planted corn, as it will grow but little and much of it will rot. Better not plant corn in Northern states before May 15.

EXPLANATION WANTED.

MORMONS ARE AMERICAN CITIZENS IF THEIR WAYS ARE PECULIAR.

Washington, April 27.—In response to urgent telegrams from United States senators Smoot and Kearns, of Utah, Secretary Hay has addressed a communication to Ambassador Tower, at Berlin, requesting him to investigate a complaint which has been made that the authorities in Prussia and Mecklenburg have been taking action looking to the expulsion of a number of Mormon missionaries. It was represented to Mr. Hay that these missionaries, with a few exceptions, are American citizens, and that they have violated no moral secular law. Polygamy, it is asserted, has not been taught or practiced as one of the tenets of the Mormon faith.

The secretary's dispatch directs Ambassador Tower to ascertain if any injustice or wrong has been done these people.

BEAUTY AND STRENGTH

Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure. Many—nay, most—women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sallow, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil by eating nourishing food and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal to digest what you have eaten. 50c at DuBois Kolb & Co.

A RUNAWAY CAR

Crashes Into a Train at Fulton Saturday Night.

Engineer Randall and Fireman Hatch Were Injured.

Engineer Joe Randall and Fireman Lon Hatch, who were pulling train No. 122 into Fulton Saturday night, were badly injured in a collision with a wild car loaded with three enormous logs.

The passenger train was coming into Fulton and upon striking the incline met the wild car which had broken loose from a train. The crash broke the engine up badly and wrecked the car of logs. Fireman Hatch had his shoulders injured, one being badly dislocated. He was also cut and bruised about the leg. Randall has a cut over the right eye, two ribs broken and both legs bruised and cut and his body bruised and lacerated. He is now at his home and was today resting well. The injuries to both men are not very serious but extremely painful.

EASTER WEDDING MISHAPS.

THE BELATED GUEST WHO WAS OBLIGED TO DRESS ON THE FERRYBOAT.

"Gracious, what a lot of people have got married this week!" exclaimed the Brooklyn girl.

"Yes, and think of what a lot of funny situations have arisen at nearly every wedding," replied her companion. "Why, at one affair this week in Brooklyn a crowd of girls, well chaperoned, hired a bus to come over from New York. They started in plenty of time to reach the bride's home before 8:30, the hour appointed for the ceremony.

"One of the girls, however, an habitual delinquent, reached the starting place too late to dress herself before the bus arrived. She had come in from out of town, and carried her glad rags in the ever handy dress suit case.

"Not wishing to delay the party, she consented to go along gowned as she was and array herself during the few minutes which would intervene between their arrival at their destination and the moment for the breaking forth of the strains for the bridal procession. But alas and alack! the driver decided to cross the ferry in lieu of the bridge.

"They found upon reaching the ferry house that they had lost the boat they had planned to catch, and the next one as well, so that they would arrive just thirty minutes after they had intended and some twenty after the minister had tied the fatal knot.

"What should the girl from out of town do? She could not seek a place to dress in the midst of the reception, or at least she did not care to try that. What a predicament!

"I'll dress right here," she decided as the bus drew into the dark interior of the ferryboat.

"And dress she did, to the marvel of her companions and the mystification of the passengers on the ferryboat, who could not imagine wherefore arose those peals of laughter coming from the closely curtained vehicle so near them. She was dressed, though, when they landed in Brooklyn, and enjoyed the reception a little more, perhaps, than any of the other guests. She had an added source within for merriment, as it were."

"That is a good way out of a difficulty," laughed the Brooklyn girl. "I can't beat that! But I do know of one time when after the ceremony as the bride and bridegroom were preparing to leave, no rice was to be found in the house. It was an out of town wedding, and neighbors were not easily accessible. In despair a raid was made upon the stable and quarts of oats procured. With these the couple were showered as they fled from the house. And all through the bridal trip the bride confided to me that she shed oats to the right and oats to the left.

"It was lots worse than hayseed," she seriously explained."—New York Sun.

GO TO SHILOH.

THREE PROMINENT CHICAGO MEN EN ROUTE TO BATTLEFIELD.

Mr. J. B. Lord, president of the Ayer and Lord Tie Co., of Chicago, and family arrived in the city this morning from Chicago via Fulton and went aboard the towboat Pavana to make a trip to the Shiloh battlefield. Mr. Lord will be met at Decatur, Ala., by J. T. Harahan of the I. C. and Dr. Johnson, a prominent physician of Chicago, and the entire party will take a week's trip on the river. This arrangement was perfected and carried through last summer. The Pavana is one of the tie company boats and has been freshly painted and is in model condition.

CUP DEFENDER TRIAL.

NEW YACHT SHOWS UP WELL IN FIRST TEST.

Bristol, R. I., April 27.—In a 15 mile beat to windward down Narragansett bay, out to sea and a long run before the wind, back to her moorings here, the Reliance, the new aspirant for the honor of defending the America's cup, was given her first builders' trial today.

At its conclusion, C. Oliver Iselin, the managing member of the syndicate owners, said he was much pleased with the new boat.

NEW DEPARTMENT.

Washington, April 27.—The new department of commerce and labor is gradually being organized. It will begin actual work about July 1. No decision has been reached as to the appointment of an assistant secretary, though several names are under consideration.

ANOTHER FIGHTER.

THE ARMORED CRUISER COLORADO SUCCESSFULLY LAUNCHED.

Philadelphia, April 27.—The armored cruiser Colorado was launched at Cramp's shipyard in the presence of a distinguished gathering of officials from Washington and the state of Colorado, including the entire congressional delegation. Miss Cora May Peabody, daughter of Governor Peabody, of Colorado, broke the bottle of wine on the prow of the cruiser as she glided down the ways at 12:35 o'clock into Delaware river. Miss Peabody was escorted to the christening stand by Charles H. Cramp, president of the Cramp Shipbuilding company, and the fair sponsor was followed by her father, Governor Peabody, Mrs. Peabody, James O. Peabody and Miss Jessie Peabody. The Washington party arrived here over the Pennsylvania at 11 o'clock and proceeded at once to the shipyard.

SLICK MAYFIELD YOUTH.

HAD LEFT HIS GUN AT HOME.

Mayfield has long boasted of the desperation of its representative youth but never have they furnished so good an example as was seen this morning at the I. C. passenger depot.

Officer John Hessian rode out on a car with a youth, not over 12 years of age, and asked the boy where he was going. "To Mayfield," was the reply. "Well, where is your gun," Officer Hessian asked, feeling in the boy's pocket for it. The little fellow grinned knowingly and invited a further inspection of his person.

"You slick Paducah cops think you are fly, don't you," he jeered. "Well I am wise and you can't catch me. My gun is at home and if you will come down I will show it to you." The boy further boasted of his gun and how often he carried it in Mayfield. Hardly a man is arrested in this city hailing from Mayfield, for any crime that a gun is not found on him.

WALKS WITHOUT CRUTCHES.

I was much afflicted with sciatica, writes Ed C. Nud, Iowa, Sedgwick Co., Kan., "going about on crutches and suffering a deal of pain. I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, which relieved me, I used three 50c bottles. It is the greatest liniment I ever used; have recommended it to a number of persons, all express themselves as being benefited by it. I now walk without crutches able to perform a great deal of light labor on the farm." 25c, 50c and $1 at DuBois, Kolb & Co.

COAL FAMINE OVER.

The coal famine is over and there is now plenty of coal on hand.

The railroad people claim that the delay in shipment was caused by a "turn around" at Central City and that the coal was delayed not longer than three days. All dealers have plenty of coal now and can supply the demand.

Cured

At 70 of Heart Disease Contracted

During Civil War—Veteran Grateful.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Effected Cure.

Heart disease is curable, but in people of advanced age it does not readily lend itself to ordinary treatment. There is, however, hope for all sufferers in Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which we know from watching hundreds of cases and from the letters of grateful sufferers, will cure where all else has failed. It is not only a wonderful cure for weak and diseased hearts, but it is a blood tonic, a regulator of the heart's action and the most effective treatment ever formulated for improving the circulation of the blood.

"During the Civil War I contracted heart disease, and in 1896, while living in the grand old town of Lexington, Va., I grew so much worse, I left there with my wife to visit my sister-in-law, Mrs. T. A. Kirby, at Roanoke, Va. While I said nothing to anyone I never expected to live to return to the dear old town. On reaching Mrs. Kirby's she insisted I should try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I procured a few bottles of it, also the Nerve and Tonic. After using one or two bottles, I could see no improvement, and I despaired of ever being better, but my faithful wife insisted on keeping it up, which I did. Improvement soon began to appear and I took in all fifteen or sixteen bottles. I was restored to perfect health and while I am 70 years old, I am comparatively a boy. You sir, are a benefactor, and I cheerfully recommend Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to suffering humanity."—J. L. SLAUGHTER, Salem, Va.

THE WEATHER.
Fair and warmer tonight. Tuesday
fair and warmer.

THE LAST ACT.

John K. Hendrick has resigned.
Beckham is without opposition and the warmest campaign in the history of Kentucky Democracy has become as
mild and gentle as the notes of a cooing dove. But the question now agitating the friends of the late candidate-for-principle-only is, What made him do it? Whatever the answer may be that is put out for public consumption, the fact remains that this redoubtable Henry of Navarre, who was supposed to be tearing things wide open from Mills' Point to the Breaks of the Sandy has committed political suicide without the peradventure of a doubt, and will be buried without benefit of clergy.

However plain the writing on the wall may have appeared to Mr. Hendrick, however strongly entrenched he may have found the enemy's forces to have been, he owed it to himself and
to his friends to have fought to the finish. This was supposed to be a fight for principle; the friends of Mr. Hendrick believed that nothing but the annihilation of the machine would save Kentucky Democracy. Mr. Hendrick posed as the arch-enemy of political corruption, and his election was supposed to be absolutely necessary to effect the cleaning out of the gang of
political cutthroats now holding forth
at Frankfort. At least this is what we inferred from reading the patriotic utterances and vitriolic paragraphs of his friends and supporters. In fact the bridges had been burned, and the way Beckham's record was being shown up by this reform candidate
and his friends was causing the direct
consecration to the machine.

But all is lovely now. The fifteen day limit is passed. Breckinridge is
out. Hendrick gives up the contest and Beckham and the machine are once more the unchallenged leaders of the great untamed and the ideal ex-ponents of Kentucky Democracy as it actually is.

To Republicans the course of Mr.
Hendrick is inexplicable. For years
the Republican party has fought for principle, and, except in a few instances, with no hope of success. We have thought, however, that an honorable though overwhelming defeat
was preferable any time to a disgraceful retreat in the face of the foe.

Mr. Hendrick should have finished
this campaign even if he knew he were doomed to defeat. His friends would have been true to him, and a defeat fighting for the right would have been more honorable than an election at the hands of a corrupt and unscrupulous machine.

Pierpont Morgan is not such a shrewd financier after all. He has just offered $500 to anyone smashing
a camera containing a snapshot of
him. It is up to some confidence man
now to lay for the "king of finance"
with a $5 camera and get his picture,
and then have a pal appear on the stage and maliciously smash the camera and
The Joe Fowler left at 11:15 P.M. for
for Evansville.

and work the con game until Pierpont
withdrew his offer or ran out of money.

The yellow journals made a big sensation over the removal of some
papers from a postoffice department
safe at Washington by the wife of an official the other day, without stopping to ask whether she acted authoritatively or not, or to whom the papers belong. It develops, after the excitable saffron-hued journals have had time to learn more about it, that an inquiry would have developed the fact
that the papers were private property,
and their removal was proper and not without authority. About two-thirds of the so-called "postoffice" scandal is about like the above, and is merely a tempest in a teapot stirred up for political effect.

A certain class of disgruntled people encourage and coerce the federal
and civil authorities to harass, prosecute and even persecute many big business combinations, some of which are erroneously called "trusts," and then
when the latter boost prices to make up for losses, the people howl worse than ever. A great many people will encourage the miner to remain idle
until he is paid more money and then abuse their coal dealer because he has to sell his coal higher. The best thing
to remember in modern times is that
everybody is looking for the best of it,
and those who have the advantage
usually get it, which means that the people pay the freight.

Visitors to the World's Fair dedicatory exercises this week will wonder if Kentucky will be there. If the matter had been left to the legislature
it assuredly would not have been.
Thanks to the public-spirited citizens,
however, the state will have fitting representation.

It is now up to the courts of Alabama to decide what the legal standing is of that negro who was hanged,
pronounced dead and then came to
life after being turned over to his friends. But this question will not be raised in the case of Mr. Hendrick.

Arkansas has just passed a law prohibiting non residents from hunting
in the state. Probably the legislature
is afraid a stranger might mistake
Governor Jeff Davis and some of the other politicians for a new species of wild animal and take a shot at them.

The friends of the late Mr. Hendrick
would be pleased to know why it was
that his withdrawal came just at the moment of the passing of the fifteen
day limit. Perhaps Mr. Breckinridge
would like to know about this also.

The king of France marched up the hill with 40,000 men and when he reached the top he marched them down again. John Hendrick, with, how many men did Colonel Wilhelm say?
Well, anyway, he "quit."

A man won't need Swoboda or any other physical exercise if he will take
a daily ride over our "beautifal"
streets. He'll get enough jolting to aid him digest any of the new breakfast foods.

There was a young lady from Niger
Who smiled as she rode on a tiger.
They came back from the ride,
The lady inside,
And the smile on the face of the tiger.

Yesterday was a beautiful day and
hosts of people were out driving.
Needless to say all wondered what
had become of the beautiful streets
Paducah was once famed for.

Mr. Hendrick says he will support the ticket to the last ditch. Well, if he supports it at all that is where it will be; he is already in his last ditch.

Like Mr. Yontsey of "confession"
fame, it may be that our friend was afraid of hurting the feelings of Mr.
Arthur Goebel, don't you know.

Everyone, save two local newspapers, knew Colonel Hendrick was up against it.

The mud batteries have been silenced. Is all "quiet along the Potomac?"

He who fights and runs away may live to fight another day." Aye, verily.

Won't the Republicans have campaign material?

Who said anything about a quitter?

denly. He was 83 years old and cor-

TEN FOR ONE.

IS THE REVENGE OF THE BRIT-ISH ON MAD MULLAH.

Aden, Arabia, April 27—Brig. Gen.
Manning, after an engagement with
the Mad Mullah's forces, has relieved Col. Cobbe, near Gumburru, Somaliland, forty-five miles westward of Galadi.

About 2,000 of the Mullah's men were killed. The British loss is not known.

The few details obtainable of the disaster to Col. Plunkett's detachment April 17 shows the Mullah's forces
consisted of 2,000 horseman and 10,
000 spearmen. They surrounded Col.
Plunkett's force in the open and the Somalis, after a heavy rifle fire,
charged repeatedly with their horsemen and spearmen on all side. The British detachment held out until its ammunition was exhausted and then
charged with the bayonet, but it was ultimately overwhelmed by weight of numbers. The British force fought until all its officers and 170 men were killed. Most of the handful of men who reached the camp were wounded.
The Somalis losses are reported to aggregate from 2,000 to 4,000 mounted
men and about 80,000 spearmen.

CAME TO LIFE

Negro Who Was Hanged in Alabama May Recover.

Montgomery, Ala., April 27—A
special to the Advertiser from Annis-
ton, Ala., says:

It is learned today that the negro Tom Barth, hanged in Wedowee two weeks ago, is now able to sit up and may recover. After the negro was pronounced dead he was cut down, as is usual, and shortly afterward began to show signs of life. A physician was summoned and applied restoratives
and the man is now able to sit up.
This was the first man ever hanged in Randolph county and it is thought that the officials were excited and allowed him to be cut down before he was dead.

BREAKS OUT AGAIN.

SAYS ANARCHISTS ARE THE
ONLY PURE AND GENTLE
PEOPLE IN THE WORLD.

New York, April 27—Addressing a meeting of anarchists in this city last night John Most, who was recently released after having served a term of imprisonment on Blackwell's Island,
declared that John Mitchell was either
a fool or knave for not snubbing the anthracite strike commission.
"As to kings," he said, "there is an
idiot on the throne in Russia and in England they have an idiot for a king;
in Italy the ghosts of popes play high
jinks, but what is a pope compared to
at Malatesa or to a Bresci? Anarchists are the only pure, noble, gentle and
high-minded people in the world."

PROPERTY SEIZED.

St. Louis, April 27—Circuit Attorney Folk, of St. Louis, has determined to confiscate the property of Charles Kratz, a fugitive councilman now in Mexico, for the benefit of the state.

If Kratz comes within the jurisdiction of the American courts he will be arrested on the charge of bribery.

park and the park proper. The cars
were well filled all the afternoon and

The Wallace park summer theater is rapidly nearing completion and this week the iron framework is expected
from St. Louis. The floor is finished and also the stage portion of the house
and as soon as the iron framework is
here, it will be completed and opened
up. The stage is not as large as The Kentucky, but is a great deal larger than the stage at the old summer theater in the park.

COWBOYS SPORT.

ENTERTAIN PRESIDENT WITH BUCKING CONTESTS.

Edgemont, S. D., April 27—The cowboys gave a performance Saturday
for the benefit of President Roosevelt.
A disappointment to everybody was
the failure of the prize bucking horse
of the section to perform. The animal was on good behavior and had the gentleness of the proverbial kitten.
The president stopped at a number of Dakota and Nebraska towns.

YACHT RELIANCE.

Bristol, R. I., April 27—The yacht Reliance was taken out for another spin yesterday, lasting two hours, and
on the whole she proved as she did
Saturday, a stiff and powerful craft.
She was very fast in beating and reaching.

SUDDEN DEATH.

ness transacted:

bery and as a partner to Louis Buford,
the deceased colored desperado.

Captain Bailey will return tomorrow night with his prisoner.

Officers Heston and Hurley claim
that they last week captured two safe-
blowers but by some mistake the men were released. They were riding the blind baggage of the passenger train
No. 104 and the officer chased the men
several blocks before they were captured. That morning they were released. Officer Heston says that candles and soap, implements of the safe
blower, was found on their persons.

An Interesting Race.

It is hoped we shall know more about the people of Somaliland, a high
and altogether desirable portion of Africa. The Somali are described as the most pleasing race in Africa. They are agreeable, courteous to men and
women, scrupulously clean and honest,
and friendly to white men. For many years they have escorted parties
of hunters inland and always fulfill
their contracts. The favorite occupation of the Somali when at leisure are cleaning their weapons and brushing
their teeth. They are teetotalers, a nation of horsemen and very courageous.

ATTACK OF VERTIGO

Mr. Ed Wetherington Has One Saturday Night.

Was on the Way to His Home in the County.

Mr. Ed T. Wetherington, a well known printer of the city, had an attack of vertigo near Sixteenth and Broadway Saturday night about 6 o'clock and fell from his buggy while en route to his home in Arcadia.

He was found in an unconscious condition and was treated by Drs. Hoyer and Robertson, who found him suffering from concussion. The horse and buggy were found some little distance away and were unhurt. It was at first supposed that a street car had struck the buggy, but this is claimed to be untrue by the street car company.

Wetherington claims he was struck by a street car, but the street car people claim they know nothing of the matter and have no reports to make. Wetherington was better this morning. He is out about the right leg badly.

POSTOFFICE SCANDAL.

Washington, April 27—The papers abstracted from a safe in the postoffice department by Mrs. James N. Tyner and Mrs. Barrett were returned yesterday by the lawyers for the Tyners, but Postmaster General Payne declined to accept the statement of the Tyners that the returned package included all papers taken from the department. G. A. C. Christiancy, acting attorney general, was temporarily relieved pending an investigation of his connection with the case.

Mrs. Mary Jenkins, Mrs. James Caldwell and Mrs. R. G. Caldwell went to Eddyville today at noon to visit.

FLASH OF LIGHT.

THE COFFEE FACTS CAME TO HER

Coffee is so often unsuspected in the work it does in the human body that illustrations of this kind are interesting.

A lady in West Townsend, Mass., says: "I did not begin drinking coffee until I was an adult. Not very long after I commenced I began to have headaches and a dull, heavy, stupid feeling. These symptoms grew worse until I was ill, but I had no suspicion that coffee was the cause of the trouble.

"I could not get up any strength, and after dragging around half sick for some time I was sent off on a visit to see if the change would do me good. I soon began to feel better and at the end of three weeks felt perfectly well again.

"Before leaving I had a long talk with my friend as to the cause of my getting better. I had taken no medicine of any kind, and the food was about the same as at home, the coffee was particularly rich, strong and palatable. I complimented her on the coffee and asked what kind she used. She told me 'Postum,' which I absolutely could not believe. I had enjoyed it so much and it had agreed with me so perfectly, but I had always had an idea that Postum Food Coffee was a flat-tasting, insipid drink and was only used by people who could not drink the old-fashioned coffee.

"My friend said she had been using it for two years because when she drank the old-fashioned coffee it kept her sick half the time. Then it dawned on me like a flash of light that the old-fashioned coffee was the cause of my trouble and sickness and that leaving it off and using Postum for three weeks had made me well.

"When I went home I told mother of the change. She saw how round and fat I had grown and said: 'You can have Postum at home; we have a package in the house that I tried once, but it tasted so flat that I went back to the ordinary coffee.' So I said: 'Let me make it; Mrs. — said it must be made according to directions and must be boiled at least fifteen or twenty minutes after the boiling begins, and if we can make it as good as she does you will be astonished at it.' 'Well, she was astonished, and from that time to this we have left the old-fashioned coffee off the table and used Postum altogether. Mother is better, my headaches and sick feelings have never returned. There is no doubt but that coffee is a poison to us and Postum is the cause of our comfort and health.' Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

BOYS FIGHT.

Councilman Young Taylor separated two boys who were fighting at the Wallace park ball grounds yesterday afternoon just in time to prevent one from stabbing the other with an ugly looking knife which he had made himself.

Councilman Taylor took the weapons away from both boys, the other having a small pocket knife, and gave them to Marshal Crow. The boy who owned the big knife is a brother to Willis Roberts, who was last week sentenced to the reform school for malicious cutting. The knife was made out of a piece of iron and is several inches longer than an ordinary table knife. No warrants have been issued, as it was a county offense, and the police will not interfere.

Earl Dustin, the 12 year old son of Mr. A. M. Dustin, foreman of the I. C. boiler shops, met with an accident at the baseball ground in the rear of the I. C. shops yesterday afternoon, and is today suffering from a sprained wrist.

The little fellow was standing in the way of Mr. Barney Clair who was running after a ball. Clair did not see the youngster and tripped over him, knocking the boy down and falling on him. The little fellow's left wrist was sprained and he was also bruised about the body.

No one was injured.

Theatrical Notes.

Herrmann the Great, a favorite entertainer and the most expert conjurer now before the public will appear at the Kentucky tomorrow night. Herrman is a remarkably clever manipulator with his hands and his palming and sleight of hand is nothing short of marvelous. He has been seen here many times before and his entertainments need no extended comments. They have attained a fame for excellence too well known to all theater goers and have a trademark that is invaluable. Herrmann and magic are synonymous. His program the present season contains much that is new to local theater goers, much that will astonish, mystify and amaze. An aerial mystery the "Princess Mahomeda" is probably the star offering on the program. Herrman hypnotizes a young lady, reclines her on a couch and slowly rises her to a considerable height, then passing a hoop around the suspended figure several times it seems beyond belief that the illusion is not a reality. "Voyage Instantaneous" is another very effective illusion, which is expected to create a sensation. "The Hindoo Mango Tree," "Les Fete des Fleurs," "The Santos Dumont" and "Chinese Washee Washee," will also be seen for the first time in this city. The musical Laskys will give added variety to a long and interesting program. Seats now on sale.

Mr. Lee Hood is pleased with the prospects of some very interesting pugilistic events at the benefit to be given at The Kentucky Friday night. The program contains three contests, a ten round bout between Hurley Randall and Alabama Kid, a five round bout with Alfred Blanks and Walter Shannon in the points and a five round go with Jim Ray and Cliff Bittle as the stars. Several other events are in contemplation and will be announced later.

Still Honor Wu Ting-Fang. Wu Ting-Fang is to be the guest of Rawlins post, G. A. R., at Minneapolis, in December. Gov. Van Sant of Minnesota will preside over a banquet to be given in Wu's honor, after which the Chinese diplomat will make an address in the opera house.

DAILY MARKET LETTER.

Wall Street, New York, April 27—The opening of the market was practically unchanged and for a time the market displayed a great deal of strength. Interests, bullish on the stock market are somewhat disappointed by the failure of the buying demand to develop in such a volume as expected and consequently the frenzied elation has diminished slightly but otherwise their position has not changed. The market is wholly in the hands of professionals and the outside does not seem willing to take hold of the market as they should, considering the very attractive prices at which nearly all the stocks are being offered, and so long as there is no outside investment buying it is not probable that the market will have much of an advance. A special from the New York Times says: "We think a good trading market in order and standard shares, such as T. C. I., sugar and copper should be taken for turn on any further decline. Net earnings for the railroads for March will show enormous gains. Buy Mexican Central, Rock island and People's gas. Town Topics' financial bureau gives out the following: "We believe Atchison to be an excellent buy and it doesn't look as if it would go below 81. Missouri Pacific should be bought on a scale down, and we understand it will receive support between 107 and 109. Union Pacific should be bought on any further recession. While the bears may attempt to depress prices a little today we believe the market will harden after any further reaction." The general closing of the market was at nearly the lowest points of the day and unless there is more interest taken in the market by the public in general prices may sag some lower. Trading was light, sales to noon being 205,000 shares. Call money ranged from 2 1/2 to 3 per cent.

Chicago, April 27—Wheat.—There was an interesting but narrow trading in the wheat pit today. The world's shipments were larger than expected and to add to the disappointment in this connection there was an increase on passage, of 750,000 bushels. Domestic crop reports were ideal and receipts were more liberal with the promise of a further increase in the general movement. The primary movement was somewhat bullish, but this was offset by the small clearances and the smaller decrease in the visible than had been expected. Cash and export business was only moderate. There was a fair degree of selling at the better prices, but the bears were not disposed to push their advantage and consequently the late trade was of a halting character with the professionals in control.

Wilhelmina's Narrow Escape. Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands, when seventeen years of age, visited Switzerland and stopped at Grindelwald. Next to the hotel grounds was a bear pit which at the time contained a young bear. The young queen took a great fancy to the animal, and fed it regularly every day. On one occasion she entered the bear pit as usual, but the bear, instead of coming up quietly to be fed, attacked the queen, who fled, escaping with some scratches and a torn dress. She still carries the marks of her encounter with the bear.

THE JOKE THAT NEVER DIES.
PERIODICITY 25 YEARS AND VISIBILITY ABOUT 18 MONTHS.

Somebody has said that there are really only seven primal jokes, all others being modifications of these. This is often repeated as being a fact. It is not. There are more than seven. As the world grows older new jokes now and then are born. The appearance of a new joke is as infrequent as the discovery of a new star, but it does occur. It is a fact, however, that, once born, a joke never dies. It may disappear for a while, but in due time it is sure to return. A thing worthy of attention is the fact that jokes have a certain periodicity, like comets. A joke appears feebly at first, in one or two newspapers or magazines; then is told by one or two after dinner speakers. It is seen simultaneously at widely separated places, perhaps being told at a dinner in San Francisco at the same time that it was being printed in a London newspaper. Gradually it increases in visibility, until it is printed in every paper in the world and told at dinners from Pekin to Kalamazoo. After this it slowly recedes until it has entirely vanished and is neither heard nor seen again until the allotted time of its periodicity, when it again blazes across the firmament of humor.

Where the joke goes to when it disappears is a mystery as deep as where the comets go to when, after shining for a time in our heavens, they wander forth into the vastness of space. Any one who will read the publications of the day can find some "new" joke which he will remember to have seen or heard years ago. If he can establish just how long ago it was that he saw the joke last he will get some idea of its periodicity. A story which is now going the rounds is as follows:

"King Edward is noted for his gentility and his reluctance to wound any one by seeming to forget him. He is extremely careful to speak to every one who has been presented to him whenever the opportunity occurs. At a recent reception when the king attended his majesty saw a man in the crowd whose face was familiar to him but whom he could not place for the life of him. Seizing a favorable opportunity the genial monarch said to the man: 'Your face is very familiar to me. I am sure that I have met you before, but, really, you must pardon me, I cannot at this moment recall your name.' The man, who was the king's tailor, replied in some embarrassment. 'I made your breeches, sir.' 'Ah, yes, certainly,' replied the king; 'Major Breeches, to be sure; glad to see you major!'"

The utter absurdity, improbability, and even impossibility of the story does not in the least detract from its popularity. It is now being used in newspapers throughout the length and breadth of the land, and is flourishing in the United Kingdom from Land's End to John a' Groat's. It is due to appear in the German comic papers in about four weeks, and be copied back into papers published in English all over the world, by which time the French and Italian funny papers will have taken it up.

The periodicity of this story appears to be about 25 years and its visibility a year and a half, roughly. On the occasion of its present visit it was first observed in the middle west, and it probably will be last seen in Australia and New Zealand. On the occasion of its last appearance, 25 years ago, the story began: "When General Grant was president he one day observed at one of the public receptions at the White House," etc. There are records of the story having been visible in this country 25 years before that, viz., in 1853; and, probably, if search were made, it would be found also to have been seen in other parts of the world. In 1853 the story began: "General Zachary Taylor, upon one occasion," etc. Going back another 25 years we find that in 1828 the story was shining with remarkable brilliance and beginning: "General Jackson, as is well known," etc. Records are not at hand to carry the investigation further, but undoubtedly careful research would establish great antiquity for the merry jest—New York Press.

Superintendent Hatfield, of the local public schools, this morning inaugurated his new plan relative to recesses and thinks the move will be satisfactory.

There will be four recesses per day, two in the morning and two in the afternoon, during the remainder of the week and if this arrangement proves successful it will be continued.

The pupils will be excused every morning at 9:30 and again at 10:30 and in the afternoon at 2 and 3 o'clock the recesses lasting for ten minutes each.

This will do away with the much-abused privilege of "being excused," and the pupils will never be in their seats longer than an hour at the time.

The pupils are working hard on their commencement exercises and will have their numbers ready by the middle of the next month, the time set for the first rehearsal.

WHEN KNIGHTHOOD
WAS IN FLOWER
 Or, The Love Story of Charles Brandon and Mary Tudor, the King's Sister, and Happening in the Reign of His August Majesty King Henry the Eighth Rewritten and Rendered into Modern English from Sir Edwin Caskoden's Memoir
By EDWIN CASKODEN [CHARLES MAJOR]
 Copyright, 1898 and 1901, by the Botten-Merrill Company

Upon returning the ladies were attacked by four ruffians and would have met with worse than death had not the bravest heart and the best sword in England defended them victoriously against such fearful odds. He left them at Bridewell without hurt or injury, though covered with wounds himself. This man is condemned to be hanged, drawn and quartered, but I know not your majesty's heart if he
be not at once relieved and richly rewarded. Think, my king! He saved
the royal honor of your sister, who is
so dear to you and has suffered so terribly for his loyalty and bravery. The day I left so hurriedly for France the Lady Mary promised she would tell you all and liberate this man who had
so nobly saved her, but she is a woman
and was born to betray."
 The king laughed a little at my ve-hementness.

"What is this you are telling me, Sir
 Edwin? I know of Brandon's death sentence, but much as I regret it I cannot interfere with the justice of our
 good people of London for the murder of two knights in their streets. If Brandon committed such a crime, and I understand he does not deny it, I cannot help him, however much I should like to do so. But this nonsense
 about my sister! It cannot be true.
 It must be trumped up out of your love in order to save your friend. Have a care, good master, how you say such a thing. If it were true, would not Brandon have told it at his trial?"

"It is as true as that God lives, my king! If the Lady Mary and Lady
 Jane do not bear me out in every word
 I have said, let my life pay the forfeit.
 He would not tell of the great reason
 for killing the men, fearing to compromise the honor of those whom he had saved, for, as your majesty is aware, persons sometimes go to Grouche's for purposes other than to flatter to his soothsaying. Not in this case, God knows, but there are slanderous tongues, and Brandon was willing to die with closed lips rather than
 set them wagging against one so dear
 to you. It seems that these ladies,
 who owe so much to him, are also
 willing that he should die rather than themselves bear the consequences of their own folly. Do not delay, I beseech your majesty. Eat not another morsel, I pray you, until this brave
 man, who has so truly served you, be taken from his prison and freed from his sentence of death. Come, come,
 my king, this moment, and all that I
 have, my wealth, my life, my honor,
 are yours for all time."

The king remained a moment in
 thought, with knife in hand.
 "Caskoden, I have never detected
 you in a lie in all the years I have known you. You are not very large in body, but your honor is great enough
 to stork a Goliath. I believe you are telling the truth. I will go at once to liberate Brandon, and that little husky,
 my sister, shall go to France and enjoy life as best she can with her old beauty, King Louis. I know of no
 greater punishment to inflict upon her.
 This determines me. She shall come out of it no longer. Sir Thomas Brandon, have my horses ready, and I will go to the lord mayor, then to my lord bishop of Lincoln and arrange to close this French treaty at once. Let everybody know that the Princess Mary will within the month be queen
 of France." This was said to the courtiers and was all over London before night.

I followed closely in the wake of the king, though uninvited, for I had determined to trust to no one, not even
 his majesty, until Brandon should be free. Henry had said he would go
 first to the lord mayor and then to Wolsey, but after we crossed the bridge he passed down Lower Thames
 street and turned up Fish street hill
 into Grace Church street toward Bishopsgate. He said he would stop at Mistress Cornwallis' and have a pudding and then on to Wolsey, who
 at that time lodged in a house near
 the wall beyond Bishopsgate.

I well knew if the king once reached Wolsey's it would be wine and quots
 and other games, interspersed now
 and then with a little blustering talk
 on statecraft, for the rest of the day.
 Then the good bishop would have a few pretty London women, and a dance
 would follow, with wine and cards
 and dice, and Henry would spend the night at Wolsey's and Brandon lie another night in the mire of his Newgate
 dungeon.

I resolved to raise heaven and earth,
 and the other place, too, if necessary,
 before this should happen. So I rode boldly up to the king and with uncovered head addressed him: "Your majesty gave me your royal word that you would go to the lord mayor first, and
 this is the road to my lord bishop of Lincoln. In all the years I have known
 your majesty, both as gallant prince
 and puissant king, this is the first request I ever proffered, and now I only
 ask of you to save your own noble
 honor and do your duty as man and king."

These were bold words, but I did not care one little farthing whether they pleased him or not. The king stared
 at me and said:
 "Caskoden, you are a perfect hound
 at my heels. But you are right. I had forgotten my errand. You disturbed

 my dinner, and my stomach called loudly for one of Mistress Cornwallis'
 puddings, but you are right to stick to
 me. What a friend you are in case of need! Would I had one like you."

"Your majesty has two of whom I know—one riding humbly by your royal
 side and the other lying in the worst
 dungeon in Christendom."

With this the king wheeled about
 and started west toward Guildhall.
 To the lord mayor we accordingly
 went without further delay. He was only too glad to liberate Brandon when he heard my story, which the king had ordered me to repeat. The only hesi-
 tancy was from a doubt of its truth.

The lord mayor was kind enough to say that he felt little doubt of my word, but that friendship would often
 drive a man to any extremity, even
 falsehood, to save a friend.

Then I offered to go into custody myself and pay the penalty, death, for helping a convicted felon to escape if I did not the truth, to be confirmed or denied by the princess and her first lady in waiting. I knew Jane and was willing to risk her truthfulness without a doubt—it was so pronounced as
 to be troublesome at times—and as to Mary—well, I had not doubt of her either. If she would but stop to think
 out the right, she was sure to do it.

My offer was satisfactory, for what
 more can a man do than pledge his life
 for his friend? We have Scripture for that, or something like it.

The lord mayor did not require my
 proffered pledge, but readily consented
 that the king should write an order for Brandon's pardon and release. This was done at once, and we—that is, I,
 together with the sheriff's sergeant and
 his four yeomen, hastened to Newgate,
 while Henry went over to Wolsey's to settle Mary's fate.

Brandon was brought up, with chains
 and manacles at his ankles and wrists.
 When he entered the room and saw
 me, he exclaimed: "Ah, Caskoden, is that you? I thought they had brought me up to hang me, and was glad for the change. But I suppose you would not come to help at that, even if you have left me here to rot. God only knows how long I have forgotten."

I could not restrain the tears at sight
 of him.
 "Your words are more than just," I
 said, and, being anxious that he should know at once that my fault had not been so great as it looked, continued
 hurriedly: "The king sent me to France
 upon an hour's notice the day after your arrest. I know only too well I should not have gone without seeing
 you out of this, but you had enjoined
 silence upon me, and—I trusted to the promises of another."

"I thought as much. You are in no way to blame, my friend. All I ask is that you never mention the subject
 again."

"My friend!" Ah, the words were
 dear to me as words of love from a sweetheart's lips!

I hardly recognized him, he was so
 frightfully covered with filth and dirt
 and creeping things. His hair and beard were unkempt and matted, and

his eyes and cheeks were lusterless and sunken; but I will describe him no further. Suffering had well nigh done its work, and nothing but the hardihood
 gathered in his years of camp life and
 war could have saved him from death.
 I bathed and reclothed him as well as I could at Newgate and then took him
 home to Greenwich in a horse litter,
 where my man and I thoroughly washed, dressed and sheared the poor fellow—and sent him to bed.

"Lightness of a 'Dorothy Dodd'"

On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—no small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

MORGAN AND CARNEGIE.

NOTED MEN LEAVE FOR EUROPEAN VACATION.

New York, April 27.—J. Pierpont Morgan and Andrew Carnegie were among the passengers who sailed for Liverpool on the White Star line Cedric yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Morgan arrived at the pier early and succeeded in getting aboard the liner by way of the steerage gangplank, unobserved. He was accompanied to the ship by his daughter, who soon after boarding the liner was separated from him in the crowd. Just before he found his daughter, Mr. Morgan turned to a friend and remarked: "Confound these big ships. I can't find even my own daughter." Then he sighted her.

Among those who journeyed to the pier to bid farewell to the financiers, were George W. Perkins and President Schwab of the United States Steel corporation. Mr. Perkins said that Mr. Morgan was going abroad for pleasure, and that the date of his return was uncertain.

Mr. Carnegie, a short time before the sailing hour, said:

"There is not much that I can say beyond the fact that I am going away to remain some time. I only hope that you will have as good time on this side as I will have on the other."

A BRIBER'S PROPERTY.

CIRCUIT ATTORNEY FOLK ASKS THAT IT BE FORFEITED.

St. Louis, April 27.—Circuit Attorney Folk Saturday afternoon filed a petition to have the property of Charles Kratz, member of the city council, who is under indictment for bribery, and who is in Mexico, forfeited. Kratz owns real estate in St. Louis valued at nearly $75,000.

The petition recites that Kratz has become a citizen of Mexico, and that under the laws of Missouri an alien cannot hold property in this state. Circuit Attorney Folk says that if Kratz wants to defend his property rights in Missouri he will have to come within the jurisdiction of the courts here, thus rendering himself liable to trial for bribery. Kratz forfeited his bond of $20,000 when he went to Mexico.

G. A. R. MAY ELECT

A DEMOCRAT.

Washington, April 27.—Gen. John O. Black of Illinois, ex-pension commissioner, is a candidate for commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. The annual encampment will not be held until next summer at San Francisco, but the campaign for commander-in-chief has already begun.

A local commander, in discussing the probability of Gen. Black's selection, said: "Since the war with Spain some of the veterans have developed the opinion that it would be a good thing for the organization if a Democrat were elected commander-in-chief. Just how far this feeling exists, however, I cannot say. Personally we all like Gen. Black. If he is beaten his politics will do it."

Rev. T. J. Newell preached a strong sermon yesterday morning at the Broadway Methodist church on "Render Unto Caesar the Things That Are Caesar's." He was heard by a congregation that filled the house. A large crowd was out to hear the evening sermon, also, which was excellent.
